Your Radio Frequency Request

The number of crystals required, as part of your gear is four, however, more choices are needed for 75MHz. If you are part of a group that is sharing crystals, you will be the first to share a frequency if it is needed. Hint: Bring your own. Note: AM modulated radio gear is not recommended in 75 and 50MHz. Dual Conversion is the majority. Use of AM in those bands could lead to radio conflicts.
